Situation in Mexico Causes Alarm in Washington.

MEXICAN TANGLE CAUSING ALARM.

Official Advisers of Nation Admit Worryment.

President Holds Fast to His Optimistic Attitude.

Missourian Asks Intervention, Sulzer Opposes.

Associated Press Night Report.

WASHINGTON, May 9.—There were enough developments in the Mexican tangle in Washington today to complicate a situation that official advisers of President Taft are willing to admit is alarming. From United States Consuls and other sources, the President heard that the revolution is spreading and from news dispatches and from Col. Steever in command at El Paso bulletins came telling of the fight that is endangering American citizens.

Senator Stone of Missouri urged intervention in Mexico and said the Americans were being "murdered." Representative Sulzer of New York, chairman of the House Committee on Foreign Affairs, reiterated his conviction that the United States must not intervene.

CABINET "STANDS PAT." Col. Steever informed the President that he would permit the wounded of both the Federal and insurrecto armies to be brought into the United States.

The Cabinet discussed Mexico but decided to keep on "standing pat." On the objection of Secretary of Agriculture Wilson, it was decided not to permit American-owned cattle from Mexico to be brought across the Rio Grande.

Despite the unfavorable intelligence, President Taft still was inclined to hope for peace. From Mexico City he learned that with the exception of two or possibly three States, all Mexico is involved in the revolution. At the same time Foreign Minister De la Barra was quoted as being confident that peace will be made between the Diaz government and Madero and that afterwards separate negotiations will be carried on with the States in which other revolutionary leaders are in command.

LET MEXICO SETTLE IT.

One bit of information given out from the White House showed that European governments are apparently willing to give Mexico an opportunity to solve her own problem. The President told callers that no foreign government has suggested that the United States take action to protect American and other foreign property and that if this nation intended to live by the Monroe doctrine it must maintain order. Italy is the only European nation that has held concern about the matter.

Gen. Madero telegraphed the insurrecto junta here that the insurrecto forces had gained possession of the greater part of Juarez and that their losses were small.

He said the imprudence of voluntary precipitate and battle which raged in Juarez today.

PRYCE DENIES ADHERENCE TO CAUSE OF FRANCISCO MADERO.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES)

SAN DIEGO, May 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Pillage and pillage overtopping the grim horrors of the dead piled in the streets of Tia Juana formed the climax of the war drama enacted almost at San Diego today with tonight's setting sun. The hundreds of Americans lining the border since early this morning as spectators of the battle, were now light hearts, "seemingly scarcely to realize that a tragedy had taken place. Of the dead, so far as known, six are rebels and eleven Federalists.

The Federalists early this morning were deprived of the counsel and guidance of their leader, Lieut. Gov. Larroque, who, while leading a sortie, received a fatal wound. To prevent his falling into the hands of the rebels his men carried him some distance out of Tia Juana to a farmhouse, where he died this afternoon.

The buildings burned by the rebels include the building, the old Catholic Church, Lieut. Gov. Larroque's residence, the Cuartel and other structures. Among well-known Mexican residents of Tia Juana who fought to the last were Casius Guzmán, Miguel Mendoza, Castro Ramirez, Juan Asuna and Jose Padilla.

San Wood, the reckless American who led the first charge, was killed in yesterday's engagement. General Pryce is now dictator of the rebel forces. Among those of his forces killed are Max Cambilich, Sam Robinson, a negro; "Bulldog" Smith and a Frenchman known as "Blackey."

GARRISON OF ZACATECAS TOWN ANNIHILATED BY INSURRECTOS.

(Associated Press Night Report.)

LAREDO (Tex.) May 9.—That the Federal garrison at Concepcion del Oro, in Zacatecas, eighty miles south of Saltillo, has been annihilated, is the information brought by passengers arriving tonight from Mexico. Accurate information as to the number of troops stationed at Concepcion del Oro is not available, but it is known that a detachment of fifty left Saltillo several days ago for that place.

Shortly after leaving Saltillo the passengers say that the fireman and brakeman of the train deserted to the insurrecto ranks. The train returned to Saltillo for another crew. Another report, so far without confirmation, is that a Federal lieutenant and twenty-two of his command were killed in the outskirts of Saltillo. An encounter was reported several showing the sandy hillsides along which the bulk of Madero's men have been hiding the result of the peace negotiations for over a week, and from which they swept down in force upon the Mexican city Monday, taking the greater part and securing a position within the town which gives them practical assurance of capturing it when hostilities are resumed. Fighting is expected to recommence at any hour.

FLAMES AGAIN SWEEP JUAREZ.

Rebels Announce Another Attack to Take Place When Blaze Dies Down.

(Associated Press Night Report.)

EL PASO, Wednesday, May 10.—Fire in Juarez has broken out anew at 12:15 o'clock this morning. The entire town seems to be ablaze. The Mexican Northwestern freight depot, the Mexican Central passenger depot and the city market place are burning. Red Cross physicians returning from the insurrecto stronghold were informed that no more wounded would be cared for tonight, for as soon as the blaze died down, they would renew the attack.

AMERICANS NEUTRAL.

ORDERED TO WATCH LINE.

(Associated Press Day Report.)

WASHINGTON, May 9.—"Use your best efforts to enforce the neutrality laws and urge on the people of El Paso the necessity of keeping as much as possible out of the zone of fire." These instructions have been sent by Gen. Wood, chief of staff of the Army, to Col. Steever, commanding the American troops at El Paso. All available troops have been ordered to El Paso by Col. Steever.

President Fallieres of France, Chaplain, the Minister of Foreign Affairs, and the Minister of War, all expressed their sympathy for the American people.

REBELS POSTOFFICE FIRED.

Those who could walk were supported, the others were carried on stretchers by their comrades to the center of the international bridge, where Col. Steever's men met them and carried them to the American custom house and put them in ambulances. At the same time bullet-riddled men were rushed off to the front.

At 5 o'clock the Juarez postoffice was fired by a bomb thrown by one of Garibaldi's men and soon its smoke and flames were seen afar. Smoked out of the adjacent church, Navarro's soldiers were forced to retreat from their quarters and take their last stand in the great church, which has been strongly fortified for months. The church had been under fire all day, but at evening was scarcely visible. The rebels were unable to direct their one remaining cannon against its thick walls here.

PLUCKY AMERICANS.

In Maj. Donah's car-barn hospital, Patrick O'Neil from Detroit, who said he fought in Cuba with the Eleventh Cavalry, was caring for the wounded, assisted by another, who enlisted as Frank King from New Jersey. Two volunteers to get the wounded out of their trenches and across an open field to the shelter of the car-barn.

"While we wait about our work," said O'Neil, "the thirty Americans in our band jumped out from shelter and frequently took a backache. The Federal fire and permit us to rescue our wounded. I never saw men behave as these fellows did under fire."

I can add this testimonial to the spirit of the band. When I arrived at the car-barn, with one other correspondent who accompanied Capt. Hart on his first trip, we went in to tell the wounded men that they were to be taken to hospitals in El Paso. "Oh, go on farther up and rescue the poor devils who are hurt worse than we," was the way they greeted the news of their delivery.

ANGELINO IN FIGHT.

Baughman, who asked only that his brother in Chicago be notified, was wounded in a house not far from Gen. Navarro's headquarters. Later the Americans learned that they had been in the Federal general's own house and had taken two of his swords and guns.

M. B. Hawkins of Los Angeles, a private in the insurrecto army, told me that four companions helped him rush the house to find shelter from a shower of bullets. A beautiful woman opposed their entry and grabbed from their hands a sheet which she had taken to bandage Baughman's wounded leg. The house proved to be of fresh adobe, through which the bullets cut like hot knives in cheese, and they fled leading Baughman with them.

EL PASO SAFER.

Bulletins have been received from El Paso less frequently than yesterday, and the total dead and wounded on the American side was less than half that of the first day's fighting. This fact was accounted for—not by any heed that the Federals or insurrectos paid to the protest of Col. Steever in the name of the United States—but mit the wounded of either side to be brought across the border. Gen. Duncan responded from San Antonio that such action would be permitted and at 5 o'clock the first relief expedition started across into Juarez under the leadership of Capt. Juan S. Hart, a wealthy El Paso resident. "Australian Billy" Smith, ex-pupil-ette star, now a detective, waved a white sheet from a pole on the automobile crossed the bridge and was stopped by the insurrecto guards. When the mission was explained a soldier ran ahead to the car barn, where nine wounded rebels were lying on cots or on the ground in the mule stalls.

SOME OF THE INJURED. Before the automobile could proceed further into Juarez, Capt. Hart was sent back to arrange for the removal of this first installment of the injured.

The most seriously wounded was Leonard Barowski, No. 1447 West North avenue, Chicago. He fought against the Russians for Polish independence and enlisted as a private in Madero's army as a patriot, he said. His gun was splintered in his hand at the same time that an exploding shell gouged out an eye and shattered his hand.

Ed Baughman, from Teikarna, lay in a mule stall with a bullet in his leg. A. E. Anderson, address refused, had a bullet in his thigh. Some of these men and their Mexican comrades had lain, wounded, in the blistering sun for hours without water. Some had tasted no food for thirty-six hours until this noon, in the barn of a hospital, a goat was slaughtered and soup made for the invalid men.

REBELS CROSS ACTIVE.

The wounded are being brought in as fast as they are found and cared for by an American Red Cross party, under the direction of Dr. James Pryce, Red Cross physician in San Diego, Cal. With Dr. Jackson are Drs. F. J. Smith and R. O. Shelton, also of San Diego.

Other members of the Red Cross are with the three physicians and one of the Red Cross building. The Juarez has been turned into a hospital for the care of the wounded. The rebels are reported to have killed two of their men. At the camp of the American troops, half a mile distant, the rebels are reported to have killed two of their men.

So far efforts to learn the names of the dead and wounded have been hampered by the fact that the rebels are reluctant to reveal their identity. The leader of the rebels, Gen. Navarro, who succeeded to command when Capt. Sam Woods was killed late last night, will as yet make no statement to the different positions from which the firing was done.

By daybreak the insurrecto forces were on the move to the last man, save a mere handful left to guard the camp. At times, when Madero's troops were in the rear, Navarro's soldiers were forced to retreat from their quarters and take their last stand in the great church, which has been strongly fortified for months. ## REBEL FORCES CAPTURE TIA JUANA AFTER FOUR HOURS OF FIGHTING.

Insurrectos, Eighty Strong, Rush Lower California Town and Federals Are Forced to Flee—Casualties on Both Sides Believed to Be in Excess of Seventy-five. Pryce Plans and Leads Attack.

(Associated Press Night Report.)

TIA JUANA (Lower California) May 9.—Three companies of rebels comprising 250 men, tonight are camped in the buildings and streets of Tia Juana.

The town was captured this morning after a battle lasting from 5:30 o'clock until 9:40 a.m. At that hour resistance to the rebels had ceased. Conservative estimates of the dead and wounded on both sides place the number at seventy-five.

The assault was made by a company of eighty men only. The balance, 200 in all, comprising two companies of men, held the passes to Tecate and to Ensenada, south and east of Tia Juana.

The number of dead and wounded may not be definitely known for two or three days. Out of a total of 100 men who were in Tia Juana yesterday, guarding it against attack by the rebels, twelve succeeded in making their way to the American side, where they surrendered to the United States troops.

There are six dead bodies in the main street of Tia Juana. Two of these were rebels, four Federals. In the underbrush and behind rocks are more bodies of wounded and dead men. RED CROSS ACTIVE.

Bloody Victory.

PRYCE LEADS ATTACK.

The attack was planned and executed by Pryce. His force of men surrounded the town on three sides and one by one the points of vantage held by the rebels were taken until a remnant of the Federals broke through to the southwest in the direction of Ensenada. The rebels were driven from the townhouse where the last stand was made, broke for the south and were pursued for a mile away and just a short distance from the American line. EL PASO, May 9.—What was perhaps the fiercest battle of the Mexican revolution was fought at Juarez, where the rebels and Federalists fought. Tonight both Federal and insurrecto forces are resting on their arms, ready to resume the fighting at daybreak.

At least five persons have been killed on the American side of the border since the fighting began yesterday. The loss on the battlefield is seriously estimated at from thirty to fifty dead on both sides and about fifteen to twenty wounded. The Federalists are reported to have killed about fifteen of the insurrecto wounded at the American side, but more are believed to be lying far within the town.

Gen. Navarro at 7 o'clock tonight agreed to stop the firing while the wounded were being cared for. The Federalists have adequate medical facilities and are caring for their wounded within the town.

REBELS IN CONTROL. The insurrectos swarming through the streets of Juarez and meeting the Federalists with equal vigor, are claiming the town tonight. They claim the accuracy of their range is a half-mile and the customhouse, the position of the Federal forces is extremely well fortified. Further south, the more territory they were in battle formation they probably could storm the Federal stronghold. The rebels are reported to have killed about fifteen of the insurrecto wounded at the American side, but more are believed to be lying far within the town.

The Secret of Success

Genuine Merit Required to Win the People's Confidence
Have you ever stopped to reason why it is that so many products that are extensively advertised, all at once drop out of sight and are soon forgotten? The reason is plain—the article did not fulfill the promises of the manufacturer. This applies more particularly to a medicine. A medicinal preparation that has real curative value almost sells itself, as like an endocrine chain system the remedy is recommended by those who have been cured, to those who are in need of it. In an interview on the subject a prominent local druggist says: "Take for example Dr. Kilmor's Swamp-Root, a preparation I have sold for many years and never hesitate to recommend, for in almost every case it shows immediate results, as many of my customers testify. Now, if I had a remedy that I knew of as having a large sale."

Nerves Gone—Heart Weak

Doctors Tell us That a Vast Percentage of the Breakdowns and Troubles Today Are from Overworked, Undenourished Nerves.
We Americans strain every nerve in our body trying to make a success in life, and do not nourish and feed our nervous system so as to make it equal to the strain; the result is we are broken-down men and women before we are forty years of age. The nerve tissues must be fed and strengthened, the stomach must be assisted in doing the work of digesting the food, the blood must be enriched and circulation quickened, the body and brain must be invigorated, so that we can withstand the strain and retain health, strength and youth. Here is the experience of Miss Kemp of Summerville, New Jersey, who had a complete nervous breakdown, so that her heart became very weak. Miss Kemp was in a serious condition and was advised to try Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey. Not only was she cured, but she was able to resume her work.

START NEAR RIOTS IN OAKLAND.
[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]
OAKLAND (Cal.) May 9.—The Industrial Workers of World made their first appearance in Oakland today when they surrounded the main gate of the California Cotton Mills at the end of Twenty-third street, causing a riot of such proportions that the police were called. The men and women workers of the mills had a difficult time in eluding the so-called Workers and more than half of them were forced to stay out of the gate. About 200 Industrial Workers, hearing that the cotton mills were to put into operation the new eight-hour schedule today, made their appearance at the gate early this morning and the first workmen to appear were grabbed and hustled off a couple of blocks away, where they were subjected to ill-treatment by the men. Later the women started to arrive

NEWS REPORTS FROM CORRESPONDENTS OF THE TIMES.

Another Bond Election is Among Probabilities.

The next speaker was Thomas L. Gibbon of Los Angeles, who spoke of "The Municipality as a Business." He was followed by the Rev. J. Lewis Smith, "The Crown of the Crown City." One of the very interesting talks to follow was that made by W. Ogier, who had for his subject "Is It Worth the Price." The last speaker was Samuel F. Hinds, who spoke on "Touring Time in the Fourth Dimension."

BOARD OF TRADE.
At the annual meeting of the Board of Trade held at the new Hall last night, the annual report of the officers showed marked progress during the year. Directors re-elected those of M. H. Wilson, J. L. Linger, C. P. Curran, C. E. Rice, H. Kate, F. E. Graham and E. C. Chowaky.

It is the intention of the school trustees, if the bonds carry, to introduce dramatic science and music training in all of the grade schools and polytechnic work in the High School. Every school room is filled at present and next September it will be necessary to have more room. The board wishes to complete the Ramon school building by adding the school rooms called for in the original plan of that school.

Within twelve months a new building will be required on the Grand

ONE OF THE PICTURESQUELY LOCATED HOMES AT BEVERLY HILLS.

"I would like to establish a beautiful suburban homeplace at Beverly Hills." This has been the expression of a large part of the thousands who have recently visited Los Angeles' most picturesque suburb—which is adjacent to the fashionable Country Club, with its magnificent $100,000 clubhouse. And many of these enthusiastic visitors have purchased choice sites and are erecting palatial homes upon them.

Beverly Hills is the only aristocratic suburb left where moderate (yes, actually LOW) prices prevail. Think of buying lots 80x160 to 100x260 at only $1250 to $2000! And right in the heart of a half million dollars' worth of public improvements—to say nothing of the vast expenditure made for private improvements by Beverly Hills residents. Nature has given a lavish setting to this pretty suburb. Emerald foothills form a picturesque background ever pleasing to the eye. A broad, sweeping outlook upon the city, the valleys and the long range of mountains, is the inalienable privilege of every resident. The easy access to both city and beaches is an attractive feature. Thousands of ornamental trees, shrubs and flowers adorn the broad boulevards and parkings. A quaint water garden—one of the finest in the country—lends fascination to this exclusive living place. All public utilities are established—mountain water supply, electricity (gas being installed), sewers, telephones, etc. Excellent car service via Sixteenth street or through Hollywood. Beverly Hills has long passed its commencement period. It stands today as one of the most artistically and substantially improved residence districts in Southern California. Scenically it is not surpassed anywhere. It has some of the finest homes in Western America. It is notable for its absence of small lots. Only broad villa sites and acreage home places are offered for sale here. And you can buy them (villa sites) for actually LESS money than is asked for 50-foot lots in equally fashionable districts. Now, go out to Beverly Hills and see if we have been over-enthusiastic in this advertisement. Many residents actually claim that we don't

GET ABOARD! BAND WAGON MOVING.

Contestants in the Los Angeles "Times" Greater Contest Appreciate the One Great Opportunity of the Year.

In the City and Out of Town the Roll Is Rapidly Growing, and the Contest Will Open With a Field of Live Workers—The Opportunity Is Here—Grasp It—The Prizes Are Big and Many in Number—Go After Them—The Work Is Easy and Within the Scope of All Intelligent People.

RULES OF THE CONTEST.

All contestants agree to conform to the rules. Any man or woman, boy or girl of good character residing in Southern California or Arizona, is eligible to this contest. The Contest Manager reserves the right to reject any nomination. No employee or member of the family of any employee of The Times is eligible. All subscriptions to obtain credits must be paid in advance. Subscriptions from newsdealers will not be allowed to be taken by any contestant. Points will be credited at noon each day, (except Sunday) and vote announced in The Times of the following day. No contestant will be allowed to participate in other newspaper contests while engaged on this. The Times reserves the right to alter any conditions of this contest except to reduce the value of prizes.

If some one told you that you could secure a house and lot, or an automobile, a piano, a gasoline launch or orange grove, and still stay right at your regular employment, you would want to be "shown."

Read over carefully the terms, rules and regulations, and descriptive matter of The Los Angeles Times Greater Contest, and you will learn that every one of you who has the energy and ambition, may participate in the distribution of more than a hundred prizes.

The business man, the woman clerk, the school boy or girl, all have an equal opportunity, especially now that the contest is just about to open.

Cut out, and fill in the nomination coupon. Bring it down to The Times office, and see the Contest Manager. He will tell you all about it and make known to you the easiest way to get the votes.

This is a partnership arrangement, a co-operative working basis between you and The Times. You will want to get all the credits you can by securing subscriptions for The Times. The Times wants the subscriptions, so we work to a common end, and with a mutually beneficial result.

Prizes will be numerous. If you are fortunate to earn the highest score, you will have the choice of any prize offered. There's a home here for somebody—a house and lot in a fine neighborhood. Then, an automobile would not be so bad, if you missed the home. If you like the seaside, there is a beautiful building lot right on the water front at a nearby beach, and a launch too, if you like to fish. How about your bungalow? Is it furnished to suit you? Well, somebody is going to select a set of the furniture; in fact, there will be two of them.

Are you working down town, young man, and do you have to hustle to make the office on time in the mornings? Get busy and secure one of the motorcycles. They cost just exactly $245 and are the best made.

There will be no inflation here. Anybody can go to the dealer where these prizes are purchased, and the price to them in cash is just what The Times advertises in this contest.

The work of vote getting will begin in a few days. Register early in order that the other fellow may not beat you to it. The first contestants in the field will have the advantage, at least for a time.

However during the progress of the work, special prizes will be offered for results accomplished within a given time. Don't wait for the special, but get aboard for the big prizes.

A formal invitation to make an exhibit at the exposition now being held in Turin, Italy, which, however, had to be declined, was extended to Los Angeles through the Chamber of Commerce yesterday, by Robert Newton Lynch of San Francisco, commissioner from the United States. Lynch was in the city on other business, but took occasion personally to ask that an exhibit of California products be sent.

CALL FOR EXHIBIT.

The Pacific Light & Power Corporation will apply at the next meeting of the Board of Supervisors for a franchise to erect a pole-line on county roads, for the transmission of light and power.

The company has a blanket franchise, under which the stipulation was made that all lines should be built within three years of the date of grant, or not at all. This period expired about a month ago, and some of the territory the corporation desires to cover has not yet been touched.

A franchise of forty years will be asked for, to cover certain districts. It was the plan of H. E. Huntington to provide light and power for the country tributary to the old Pacific Electric, and the franchise will embrace that territory, without covering the districts about the Los Angeles city limits, although these have now come under the same management.

In addition to spreading the pole-lines, branches must be arranged for which power can be carried into residential sections just off the main lines. Most of the lines already installed are high-power, and capable of carrying more than is being sent over them.

ANNUAL Rose Festival, Portland, Or., June 8th to 10th, 1911. Take the Golden State Excursion leaving June 6th. For particulars see Agents Southern Pacific, 800 South Spring street.

Battle Stories of The Civil War.

XXXIX.
The War Day by Day Fifty Years Ago.

May 10, 1861.—The Confederate Volunteer Force at Camp Jackson, St. Louis, Was Captured by a Body of Regulars and Volunteers Under Capt. Lyon—W. T. Sherman a Witness of the Scene.

Daniel M. Frost.
Major-General of Missouri militia, and military adviser of Gov. Jackson, he was in command of Camp Jackson.

...the blind invalid mother of Francis P. Blair's wife, and in a barouche was driven to and through Camp Jackson, carrying on his arm a basket containing loaded revolvers for use if he should be found out. Mrs. Alexander was known to many in the camp and the figure in the barouche caused no special attention. Driving up and down the avenue of the camp, Lyon noted everything and escaped without challenge.

That evening he called together his committee of safety and, telling them what he had seen, declared that Camp Jackson was "a nest of secessionists" who proposed to get control of the city and that the one thing to do was to capture it. The majority of the committee agreed with him.

Some hint of Capt. Lyon's intentions had reached Gen. Frost, and on the morning of the 10th, fifty years ago today, he wrote to Capt. Lyon to inquire as to the truth of the rumors and to declare that neither he nor his command intended any hostility toward the United States.

One of those who saw the troops march away from the arsenal was Ulisses S. Grant, then a recruiting officer for the Illinois forces who was passing a day or two in St. Louis, his former home. He had known Capt. Lyon at West Point and afterward.

In St. Louis also was another who was to become hardly less famous, Wm. T. Sherman, then president of a horse-car line. He had visited the arsenal on the 5th and witnessed the distribution of cartridges to the regiments of home guards.

"I also saw Gen. Lyon running about with his hat in the wind," wrote "his pockets full of papers, wild and irregular. . . . I knew that it must be business."

SPLIT ORDERS FOR SUPPLIES

FORMER CITY OFFICIAL ADMITS ALTERING REQUISITIONS.

Material Was Purchased From the Gamewell and Value Was in Excess of Amount Requested by Law, Without Competitive Advertising, Former Councilman As Witness.

That F. W. Frankhouser, former superintendent of the Bureau of Fire Alarm and Police Telegraph, now accused of altering and falsifying public records, has admitted this was announced yesterday by Deputy District Attorney Horton, who is conducting the prosecution in the examination begun yesterday before Justice Young.

His statement, of which a transcript has been kept, was made in the presence of City Attorney Shenk and other persons. Frankhouser admits that he altered requisitions calling for supplies to be furnished by the Gamewell Fire Alarm and Telegraph Company for the University Police Station in 1906.

Under the ordinance covering supplies, all material exceeding $500 in value must be advertised for so as to provide competition. Frankhouser, in his alleged confession, states that the supplies for the University Police Station totaled $2800. In order to avoid advertising for them, he made ten requisitions, each bearing the same date so that each requisition was under the $500 limit and would be approved without question.

These requisitions are made out in triplicate, and Frankhouser later altered them after they had passed through the proper channels, so that it appeared as if a series of transactions on different dates. The original requisitions have disappeared.

He is alleged to have declared that former Mayor Owen McAleer was aware of this splitting up of requisitions.

McAleer refused to make a statement concerning the matter last night. He would not enter a denial, but said that he had not heard of the confession, and that it was a surprise to him.

Shenk said that the confession had disclosed the facts as stated, but that the matter was in the hands of the District Attorney, and that he could not talk of it.

Details of the confession, now withheld, will be brought out this morning in the testimony of Shenk and others who will be called to the stand. It is expected that interesting revelations will be made.

The witnesses examined yesterday were E. W. Land, former secretary of the Fire Department, who identified the requisitions made by Frankhouser, and Fred L. Farnham, former City Engineer, who identified the requisitions made by Frankhouser.

Under the questioning of Horton, these men testified to various details of the transactions leading up to Frankhouser's handling of the requisitions.

FOURTEEN COWS TO MILK. Injured Dairyman Is Forced to Stay in the Receiving Hospital Against His Will.

Niels B. Swendsen, a Dane, 21 years of age, who was admitted to the Receiving Hospital last evening after two painful street accidents, proved himself so devoted to duty—the milking of fourteen cows—that he excites the admiration of every man and woman in the hospital.

Swendsen is employed by George Hood as a dairyman on the latter's ranch, fourteen miles from Los Angeles, on the road to Venice. He drove to town yesterday afternoon to buy a small quantity of cement for some work being done on the ranch.

As the young Dane drove over the crossing of Third and Spring, he was bumped by a West Adams automobile that demolished his rig and threw him to the sidewalk with a painfully bruised back.

Swendsen took the affair philosophically after being satisfied that the accident was not due to any fault of his. Assured by the policeman on the beat that the wreck of the rig would be all right if left at the curb with a warning light through the night, he threw a blanket over his horse and undertook to ride the animal home. He took the road through the Third-street tunnel and was getting on nicely, but at the crossing of Third and Figueroa his horse became restive and he tried to pull the animal back. The horse slipped on the curves of the railroad track and fell. Swendsen was caught with both legs under the horse's mount. One of his ankles was badly sprained and both his knees were severely bruised and cut.

Despite these injuries, Swendsen, as soon as his hurts had been dressed, insisted that the horse be brought around to the ranch. He said he had fourteen cows to milk and that there was nobody on hand to do the work. Even when Mrs. Hood telephoned strict orders to the policeman to be kept in the hospital over night, it was only under the strongest protest that Swendsen was taken to the hospital and tucked into bed by Nurse Johnson.

DINNER, BUT NO GUEST. Federation Club Cheated of Coveted Honor Last Night by Unexpected Call North of Lieutenant Governor.

Last night was "Ladies' Night" at the Federation Club, and Lieut.-Gov. A. J. Wallace was to be the guest of honor, but a few hours later the banquet, Mr. Wallace left for Sacramento, having been called by the Governor to look after some important State business. About 200 ladies and gentlemen were present, and Dr. J. Whitcomb Brounger, president of the club, opened the post-prandial proceedings with a bunch of good stories, and then presented Mayor Alexander to extend "Our Greetings" to the guest.

The Mayor spoke highly of the record Mr. Wallace made as president of the Senate, and at some length on the duty of all good citizens toward the city government. W. E. Henderson, secretary of the Gildons, was introduced and entertained the assembly with a number of well-told pickaninny tales. Rev. Matt S. Hughes of Pasadena spoke on what constitutes real human progress and good citizenship, in lieu of the constitutional address he expected to deliver in the presence of the Lieutenant Governor.

Threatening display of the weapon, whereat he (Garfield) ran down and brought a policeman.

Ainsworth asserts, through his attorney, H. B. Duncan, that it became no apparent to him that he was being made a victim of Garfield and his two friends, who he thinks were enlisted for the purpose of helping despoil him, that he shortly got up and left the dining-room. The words which preceded his departure, he says, angered Garfield greatly.

HE IS ARRESTED. Later, according to Ainsworth's story, he returned to the main dining-room with another friend and there they were dining quietly, when Garfield summoned him into the lobby.

There he was met by a policeman, searched and placed under arrest, the revolver being found on him. In making the complaint, Ainsworth asserts that Garfield was moved entirely by motives of spite and disappointment.

Taken to the Central Police Station at 1 o'clock yesterday morning, Ainsworth freely admitted the charge of carrying concealed weapons. He was released on bail, with instructions to appear in Police Court later. There he pleaded guilty and the hearing was continued until today, with the expectation that Garfield and the two girls would be on hand to throw possible light on the exact circumstances.

When Garfield was located yesterday he informed the officer that he had just received word that a near relative had died in Kansas City and that it would be necessary for him to go either at once or Attorney Duncan said last night that the girls would be called to the stand unless at the instance of Ainsworth himself.

The young bridegroom is an insurance man of considerable wealth. He is connected with the Valley Fire Insurance Company of Oakland and has been combining a little business with his honeymoon trip to Los Angeles.

BIG MAN HARRIS COMING HERE

One of Mightiest Figures of Metropolis Heads West.

To See "The Arab"—and Los Angeles as Well.

Romantic Story of Young Man's Achievements.

By JULIAN JOHNSON.

Henry B. Harris is coming to Los Angeles. This announcement, in itself, contains not much more sensation than to say that Jim Smith passed a pleasant day in Glendale, or that H. W. Kline has moved his household goods to the coast. To the initiated, however, it means that the individual manager who is the present star of New York's theatrical firmament has cast his eyes toward Southern California and its remarkable records in dramatic productions.

Obviously Mr. Harris is coming west to see Mr. Selwyn's new piece, "The Arab," which will have its try-out performance at the Burbank Theatre next Sunday, but really his visit has much deeper significance.

He is coming to see what manner of town this is which breeds actors and actresses for metropolitan purposes exclusively, and which in the past year has given birth to several of the most notable stage successes of years.

Harris is very likely to make Los Angeles his chief try-out station. "The Arab" is a piece in which he is very much interested as he is the producer of "The Country Boy," Mr. Selwyn's notable hit of last year, also a Southern born and he has hopes for other things.

Harris will be accompanied by his wife.

MUCH TALKED OF.

About 42 years of age, Harris is the most-talked-of manager in New York today.

The son of William Harris, one of the great backers of the syndicate, "Harry" has carved his own niche in the temple of fame and financial achievement, and now stands well at the top, entirely through his own efforts.

He is the most optimistic of all managers. The producer of a remarkable line of failures, he kept at it until such world knockouts as "The Lion and the Unicorn," "The Chorus Lady," "The Travelling Salesman" and others were turning his tide.

Managers in New York as a rule leave their theaters, and the great traditions of Fifth avenue over the years. Last season Harris bought with money that he made himself—the Hackett Theatre, priced at $150,000. But shortly after the talk died down when he exploded a veritable bomb of sensation by buying the Hudson Theatre, priced at $150,000. This represents the individual achievements of young "Harry" Harris.

He said he purchased the Hackett Theatre in order to rechristen it in memory of his father, who has always been too modest to have a playhouse named after him. Harris henceforth be known as the William Harris Theatre.

That father has just announced his intention of laying down his burden of millions. He has but one son by virtue of his own efforts Henry B. Harris has achieved a station equal to any.

What will be his next year, when he takes over his father's vast theatrical interests, which virtually extend from San Francisco to London?

That is a matter which is giving certain other eminent managers considerable worried perplexity.

And last month Henry B. Harris said to Edgar Selwyn: "You do well to keep your eye on Los Angeles. Most remarkable city in the Union for shows. I'm going out there any day while this summer."

He is expected next week.

TRAPS ARE BAD; SCORES SUFFER.

SHOOTERS EXPERIENCE SLUMP IN SUNDAY PRACTICE.

Sam Smith Does Best Shooting of the Day and Goes Home While His Reputation Is Good—Mrs. Thomas Makes a Good Score—"Pop" Mallory Shooting Squirrels Out of Tree.

By EDWIN L. HEDDERLEY.

Judging from the attendance at the regular Sunday practice shoot of the Los Angeles Gun Club over its traps at Athletic Park, Venice, there is no lagging in interest among the ever-smashing fraternity. No less than seven full squads took part in the shooting during the day, and although the scores were nothing to brag of, this was only partially to be accounted for by the fact that some of the ablest shots were absent. No. 1 trap was misbehaving scandalously, sending one bird up into the air at such an angle that "Pop" Mallory said it was like shooting squirrels out of a tree, and rolling the next past the corner of the clubhouse like a center-shot bunny. Besides these little diversions of its own the trap fell to breaking birds at such a rate that the shooter was left in doubt whether he was to get a whole one or not; all of which contributed to the upsetting of scores.

The small bore squad managed to turn out only three members, and of these C. W. Fish did the best work, breaking 41 out of 80. Fish shoots No. 1 shot out of a sixteen-gauge gun, and had good results.

Scores: J. F. Mallory broke 174 out of 200; H. Meyer, 87 ex. 100; P. M. Sawyer, 79 ex. 100; Curtis Brown, 74 ex. 100; William Pugh, 100 ex. 120; A. W. Bruner, 77 ex. 145; S. E. Smith, 88 ex. 100; J. Hall, 8 ex. 60; Dr. Thomas, 52 ex. 60; Mrs. Thomas.

More of Mary.

Another group of characters by the inexpressible Garden, whose portraits might serve, in their bizarre luxuriance, as illustrations for a new edition of "Thousand and One Nights." Mary will be in our midst next week.

Scores: J. F. Mallory broke 174 out of 200; H. Meyer, 87 ex. 100; P. M. Sawyer, 79 ex. 100; Curtis Brown, 74 ex. 100; William Pugh, 100 ex. 120; A. W. Bruner, 77 ex. 145; S. E. Smith, 88 ex. 100; J. # BOWLING

Captains of class "A" teams should remember that due to the association must be paid not later than the 15th of each month, and that failure to pay said dues on or before this date will act as a forfeiture of any games rolled thereafter, or until paid. If you want your scores to count, get busy.

The fourth Commercial League tournament started off last night with a game between the Home Telephone team and Farber Brothers team. The interest in this tournament is even greater than in the last one, and that is saying quite a good deal. There are many strong teams represented, and consequently the tournament will not be a walkover for anybody.

Hume of the Eagles carried away the weekly prize at Stinson's alleys last week with the excellent score of 250. A bowler has certainly got to be hitting 'em right to knock down this number of pins in ten frames.

The printed schedules of the new tournament in the Interurban League, which commenced last Friday night, will be out within a few days. Secretary Bob Reed has been sick for several days, but is now back to work and will inject a little new life into his "pet" league.

Charlie Rising outshot all competitors in Jim Jones last week on the Western League, which is to be held in Los Angeles. He gathered over thirty more pins than his nearest rival.

Although the time for the 1912 Western Bowling Congress tournament, which is to be held in Los Angeles, is a long way off, preliminaries are already being arranged to make it the grandest tournament ever held in the West. With this end in view the Alley Managers Association has called a meeting of its members for May 10.

The Grand team picked up a plumb good one in this fellow Hill from Seattle. He now leads off for Reed's boys, and in the next games he has played in the present Southern California League tournament, has kept the old boys bumping up wood.

That he "mineralized" into the pit. If Hill keeps up his present pace he and Turner will light it out for individual honors.

The latest bowling organization to be launched is the mixed doubles league for married couples, which was formed last Thursday evening at the Cosmopolitan alleys. To date ten couples have entered and no doubt many more will appear before the tournament opens. When the ladies take to the game it speaks volumes for the clean and healthy pastime.

Two hundred averages are quite a common thing with this boy "Moccasin" Turner of the Orpheum. In the Grand-Orpheum match the other night he piled up a total of 624 and the second game for his team by striking out from the eighth frame.

In five out of the seven matches "Moccasin" has participated in he has rolled totals several pins above the 600 mark. He holds the long record for high three games with 664. In the words of Stinson Bull, "he heap good pin scap."

A new league leader looms up in the Southern California class "A" league tournament in the person of Bob Reed, who rolls with the Bimini team. He has an average of 199 and a fraction. Of course, he has only taken part in five games to date, and it remains to be seen whether he can stand the pace and still be at the top when he has bowled as many games as some of the others high up in the percentage column.

Just suppose the several teams in the Southern California class "A" league were figuring the total number of pins to decide the winner, as was the custom in this league a few years ago. They would not line up exactly as they do now, figuring the number of games won and lost. How would they be challenged any more? The other teams would follow along in this order: Los Angeles Limited, 21,478; Orpheum, 21,442; Wood-Il-Hule, 21,284; College Inn, 21,187; Cedar Brooks, 21,085; Brownwoods, 21,078; Eagles, 21,054; Granda, 20,944; Ship Caden, 20,902; Old Quakers, 20,102; Harding Coils, 19,766; Bimini Baths, 12,201.

The first games in the newly organized Moravia League will be played Thursday night. Two or three more teams want to enter this tournament, but it has not yet been decided by the officers of the league whether to allow them in or not.

The Grand baseball team, which is composed of bowlers, will be ready in a week or so to challenge any strong team in town. Bob Reed says that after the addition of two or three more good players and a couple more afternoons of practice, that he will have a world beater. Bob also announces that his bunch will soon blossom out in new uniforms.

The weekly prize of the Orpheum alleys was taken by Art Hungerford last week with 254. Art must have had his old snake ball working to perfection.

"Tommy" Tompkins established a new league record Friday night at the Cosmopolitan alleys, when he rolled 248 in the second game of the L. A. Limited-Evening match. The former record of 232 was held by Turner of the Orpheum.

SAURER TRUCK REACHES TOWN AFTER CROSSING CONTINENT.

WITH its engine humming as smoothly as when it left Denver sixty-six days ago, the five-ton Saurer truck rolled into Los Angeles yesterday afternoon and completed the hardest endurance run that has ever been pulled off with a motor truck.

George McLean, who has been at the wheel every foot of the 1500-mile journey, breathed a long sigh of relief as he rolled the monster into the Bufile & Brandt machine shop on North Main street yesterday at five o'clock.

Hundreds of people gathered along the curbs as the car came down Spring street in the afternoon. In many respects the huge curtained vehicle reminded one of the pictures of the old pirate schooners that came across the desert in '49. The curtains were weatherbeaten and the truck on the outside showed the effects of the enormous trip. The mechanical part apparently was in perfect order, however.

With the driver rode H. C. Brandt, who met the truck at Beaumont. He has been giving demonstrations through the citrus belt since Sunday. At Colton, Redlands, Riversdale, San Bernardino and Pomona, the freighter was greeted by large crowds. It is to be run around the Los Angeles streets for a week, and then taken to San Francisco, where from northern city it will be shipped to Pueblo, from where the eastern stage of the Coast to Coast trip will be started.

A. L. Westgard, who came across with the truck as guest, and C. Thompson, who was manager of the run, went out to meet the motor at Beaumont. They had left in charge of H. C. Brandt at Beaumont and had since been in the city making arrangements for the continuation of the journey.

McLean, the driver, gave H. C. Brandt a real scare as they came down the grade from Beaumont, by turning the car loose at full speed. It thundered down the sharp grade at a rate of thirty-five miles an hour. Brandt said he was just getting ready to jump when the driver put on the brakes.

McLean remarked it was almost like paradise to get into a country with good roads and bridges once more. He had been so used to going through culverts and bucking rocks and mud that Southern California highways seemed a mere relief.

On the desert he was forced to drive all of one night because the party was out of water. The extreme heat in many places made it difficult for the party to carry enough water for the trip.

The truck which made the long trip was built in Arbonne, Switzerland. This is the only place where the Saurer machines, although a factory has since been established at Plainfield, N. J. The carrying capacity of the machine is five tons. The barrels of gasoline and water and the heavy equipment used to cut through a new trail made the load almost to the capacity for a large part of the trip.

Brass plates were established by Westgard at all the important turning points on the trail. He says that it is only a matter of a few years until a good automobile road will be built on the route that he mapped out.

The truck was equipped with Goodrich solid rubber tires. The party were high in their praise of the behavior of these tires. They are much worn on the outside edges where they rub, but otherwise are in good shape and the same set of rubbers will be used for the remainder of the journey.

The Saurer truck was the first motor ever manufactured for commercial purposes. It was originally made by Mr. Saurer, who is the "king" of Switzerland. He had the machine manufactured to carry his heavy livestock manufacturing machinery into the mountains of Switzerland.

At the present time he has 3500 employees manufacturing the trucks. As they were especially built for mountain grades and passes, they are popular in the mountainous mining country for carrying ore and machinery. The smallest truck made by the Saurer Company is two and one-half tons.

able to have brought one car back with a perfect score under like conditions.

At a meeting of the officials of the tour held last night in the offices of Referee Frank Garbutt, the scores were all gone over carefully and every point was discussed thoroughly. Every man present admitted that he is surprised with the result.

The tire record itself also smashed all others. Three years ago it was necessary to carry a carload of tires on the run over the same course with only a few cars making anything like a score of the sixteen perfect score winners.

Harry Mason, the chief checker, was proud of the showing made by the Diamond tires, which showed to advantage a score of 75 per cent of the tires used on the trip.

Ray Bronson, the Indianapolis lightweight, who had four fights in Australia and one in England, made $15,000 out of these five scraps. Bronson met the best fighters in Australia and he says that everyone of these scraps attracted from 4000 to 7000 persons, who paid good prices for tickets.

Daddy Murphy, the manager of Jack Redmond and George Stevens and former manager of Battling Nelson, has accepted the position of matchmaker for the Akron, O., Boxing Club. Murphy will in the future arrange all the bouts that the club stages.

Jack Johnson's jaunt abroad will be a period of about three or four months, following which he will hustle back to Chicago and remain there for a lengthy period, providing Young Britt of Chicago in one round.

It is very likely that some of the States next fall, and it is possible that one or two will make the trip to Australia. Marcel Moreau, the French middleweight, has a longing to visit the States, and he has received flattering offers to go over there and meet

Women's Secrets

There is one man in the United States who has perhaps heard more women's secrets than any other man or woman in the country. These secrets are not secrets of guilt or shame, but the secrets of suffering, and they have been confided to Dr. R. V. Pierce in the hope and expectation of advice and help. Many of these women have been disappointed in their expectations, for they have been told that their troubles were not serious, and that they would get well by the use of common sense and a little rest.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a medicine that has been used for over 30 years, and it has been found to be the most effective remedy for all the ailments of women. It is a medicine that is made from the most pure and natural ingredients, and it is a medicine that is safe and reliable.

Every sick woman may consult us by letter, absolutely free. All replies are mailed, sealed in perfectly plain envelopes, and no name or address is given to anyone. Write without delay to Dr. R. V. Pierce, 663 Main Street, Buffalo, N. Y.
